

ARTICLE BOOKLET – SECOND EDITION

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	i
ARTICLE I	1
Dogs are Perfect at Being Dogs	1
Using reinforcement Effectively	2
Reinforcement Values	3
Reinforcement Possibilities	3
ARTICLE II	5
Building a Repertoire of Reinforcers	5
Associations	8
Life Rewards	9
"OFR's" Opportunity for Reinforcement	10
ARTICLE III	11
Each Dog is an Individual	12
Teaching the Indicator	12
Using the Indicator	13
The Eye Contact Game	14
ARTICLE IV	15
Teaching "Continuation"	15
ARTICLE V	18
Common Theory-Related Questions	19
How long should a dog be allowed to initiate the Eye Contact Game?	19
Shouldn't dogs trained with food be grateful?	20
If I train with food, shouldn't my dog always prefer me?	21
ARTICLE VI	22
Teaching Sit/Maintain	22
Proofing Sit/Maintain	23
Hand vs. Verbal Signals	24
ARTICLE VII	25
Can a dog learn who is boss?	26
Can a dog learn right from wrong?	26
The Walk Away Game	29
ARTICLE VIII	30
Walk Away and the Adult Dog	31
The Important Role of Proper Management	33
The First Step in Formulating a Problem Solving Program	34
ARTICLE IX	34
Problem Solving Program for Feces Consumption	36
The "Check-Back" Game	39

ARTICLE X	40
What to do with a "Compulsive Gambler"?	40
Physiological Management	44
Teaching the Fetching Game	44
Teaching Tug O-War	44
Mental Management	45
ARTICLE XI	45
Environmental Management	46
Emotional Preparation	46
Assessing What Needs to be Managed	48
ARTICLE XII	48
Management around the House	48
Teaching New Incompatible Behaviors	49
Conquering "Blocking"	49
Conquering "Learned Irrelevance"	50
ARTICLE XIII	51
The Power of Habits	51
Prevention of Undesirable Greeting Habits	52
Prevention of Habitual Begging	52
Prevention of Scavenging around the House	53
Stopping Running Around and Barking in the House	54
ARTICLE XIV	55
Teaching Good Habits	55
Compulsion Training Prevents Behaviors from becoming Habitual.	57
ARTICLE XV	59
Putting a Response on Cue	59
Prompting a New Behavior	60
ARTICLE XVI	62
Methods for Teaching Eye Contact	63
The Food Choice Method	63
ARTICLE XVII	66
The Crate Method	67
What to do about Frustration Barking or Whining?	67
ARTICLE XVIII	70
The Closed Door Method	70
The Closed Door Method is not a Rank Reduction Ploy	70
How to use the Closed Door Method for Teaching Eye Contact	72
Fixed Schedules of Reinforcement	73